Friday is the start of another series of Brookings luncheons. You have two bimonthly reviews scheduled that date at 1:30 and 2:30 which we can move. Or we can have someone else attend Brookings--not RSW as he has a speaking engagement he is taking for you that day. What do you prefer?

I would like to suggest that you rotate the upcoming luncheons with some or all of your office directors rather than you and ADD/M&S doing all of them. Any comment?

OK - assign office directors
to the various dates

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Management and Services

SUBJECT : Brookings Conferences for 1973-74 Season

1. Earlier this summer the Director approved continued Agency participation in the Brookings Conferences for Business Executives on Government Operations. The format for the Conferences in the 1973-74 series will be the same as in the past, with a noon luncheon meeting followed by an informal discussion on Intelligence and National Security. The Friday dates for the new season are as follows:

ILLEGIB
ILLEGIB

2 November 1973		29 March 1974
7 December 1973		26 April 1974
18 January 1974		17 May 1974
✓ 8 February 1974		7 June 1974
✓ 1 March 1974		28 June 1974

2. Mr. Edward Proctor, Deputy Director for Intelligence, will be host at the luncheon and chairman of the first Conference of the season on 2 November. May we request your nomination for a senior officer to represent the Management and Services Directorate at the first Conference. It would be appreciated if you also could nominate representatives for the remaining nine Conferences or as many as you find possible. You will recall that last year Mr. Colby established a policy of rotating the panel assignments for the Brookings visits among Office or Division chiefs or other senior Directorate officers whenever possible in order not to overload the Deputy Directors.

3. [ ] will coordinate the Brookings Conferences for the Office of Training as he did last season. He can be reached on extension [ ]
